Power of Consciousness Free Forum

The Power of Consciousness Forums are the next evolution that gives us easy access to the fundamentals of how we do life. Sometimes the way we do things is in fact stuffing up our ability to achieve. The Forum begins with some elementary facts about our Genetics our Behaviours and Subconscious. The roles and conflict between each of these shows us how well we can expect to do in Life.

The Conscious Mind and its role in relationship to our Genetics our Behaviours and our Sub Conscious Mind is where we must look in order to fully appreciate the magnitude of how we undermine our own innate ability to achieve. The relationship between these four contexts is imperative to understand as it gives us the foundation for a truly enriching life. This is the premise of everything we do and controlling the relationship between these major contexts allows us to be more in control of ourselves.

We then show you how to control your immediate environment using your energetics and Conscious Mind by modulating frequencies at a quantum level of creation where all things are interconnected and possible. You will witness powerful changes on the physical level by simply directing your Conscious Mind from one context to another. This is the cutting edge in transformation of the physical body with out actually touching the physical, creating better options for doing life.

Some valuable insight on Being Clear, Our Energetic Anatomy, Understanding Polarity and The Short Leg Phenomena as well as some fun stuff !!!
